May 12. Reuter's Pretoria correspondent, writing on the 19th ultimo, says that the Boer Delegates first put forward a demand for independence and the series of about compensation for burned farms and Cape robels were not insuperable, but the crux was the date of granting representative Government. Finally, the Boers declared that they must consult the Commandos, as they were not possessed of full

May 13.—It transpires that the Boer Delegates at Pretoria first proposed that the Republics should concede the British domands for the franchise, et cetera, made before the war, and next asked to consult their friends in Europe. Upon being advised that, unless more serious proposals were brought forward, the negotiations had better terminate, they then asked for an armistice. Lord Kitchener instead conceded immunity while consulting the commandos.

The Delegates were warned, before dispersal that, if they return to Pretoria, it. must be with full powers. The Transvaal High Court was formally

There is not a great number of people living in this country who were born in the same year as Queen Victoria. They who entered the world so long ago as 1819 and are still with us hale and hearty are undoubtedly in the running to become centenarious. - A notable example of this very small band is Mrs Elizabeth Faller, of No. 44. Ryder Street, Surry Hills, Sydney. This venerable old lady was, hore in England and came to Australia with her husband beforeshe had attained her eighteenth year, long previous to the great gold rush. She bas, therefore, already reached the fall age attained by Wellington, Goetho, Victor Hugo, Bismarck, and Tennyson, men who found time to accomplish a vast amount of enduring work, which establishes the fact that it is not among the most nueventful or least suffering lives we must look for examples of longerity. If that were not so, we should not now be writing of Mrs Fuller's career. To work strenuously for many years building up a competency, to succeed in that effort, and then to have the proceeds of your industry swept away by the miserable process of litigation is disheartening to the last degree. That is what happened to Mrs Folier. A weaker mind than hers would have become qubalanced by such a disaster. But that is not all. It is proverbial that troubles come not as single spies but in whole battalions, and so it was in this case. Enjoying excellent health, scarce knowing what that serious illness was during the first 71 years of her life. Mrs. Fuller now mot with an accident. Losing her footing while ascending the stairs, she sustained a fractured arm and collar-hone -a serious -calamity to befall anybody, but specially a woman 71 years of age.

some degree patched up there was discharged within two months as cured. My worst fronbles however, were only just beginning. The fall must have wrenched my back and injured my bidneys, for a dull continuous pain set in its that region which allowed me no rest by day or night, producing urinary difficulties of a mostdistressing nature, and an obstinate constination. I visited the leading hospitals as an outdoor patient, and was at one time under treatment at my own home by a lady doctor. None of the plasters, limiments, lotions, or other medicines they gave me proved of any service. As time passed the pain in my back increased se much that the agony I endured was intelerable, and I felt as if I could have welcomed death to end my sufferings. In this wretched condition I remained two years. Then my daughter, Mrs. W. Johnson, of Arden Street, Waverley, Longist mo three of Mother Seigel's Southing Plasters. a box of Mother Soige!'s Operating Pills, and a bottle of Mother Seigel's Curative Syrap, She did this on the advice of a friend who said ho was sure they would relieve my sufferings if given a fair trial. Happily for me the accuracy of his belief was soon established, for the plasters, used in conjunction with the Syrap and Pills, at one reduced the backache to a tolerable degree, and in two months had quite mastered it. I was once more able to eat, sleep, and get about in confort. After so long an illness, and at my advanced age, a quick restoration to perfect health and strength was not to be expected, but I persevered with the three Seigel rouncides for six months, and was rewarded by a daily improvement in my condition. At the end of that time I feit as well as a person of thy years could hope to be, and I have remained well from that day to this."

has been in some degree repaired by the grant of an Old Age Pension by the beneficent State of New South Wales—a boon extended only to those who have resided in the State continuously for at least 25 years, and in itself a sure warrant of the respectability and honour of the recipient. THE RENEWING OF BRITAIN'S SHIPPING FLEET.

When allowance is made for waste, onomy, too, is increased, for in many loss by misudventure, and sales to for eigners, it is seen that our merchant floor has grown to the extent of 571,045 tous during the past year. This gain of about 1 per cent, seems small when the great activity of our shipbuilding works Intely is recalled. But then the process average speed of 10 knots, burn penday of renewing the British fleet is continuous. Thus 1,173,300 tons of steamers and 45,200 tons of sailing vessels were, day a million tons less of sailing ships, Eclipse added during the year, nearly all new't But there were removed 198,429 rous and 459,119 tons respectively. More than one-half of these tremovals -306,000 tons-continue in existence, under foreign flags, while 60,000 tons for despondency as to the British fleet, Handy more took colenial colours; but even so, there is much consolution in the fact that we are in a superior position, by ! Warning to Sanitary Board Officials.

At yesterday's meeting of the Sanitary Board-Dr Atkinson, President, in the Chair-Mr E. Osborne said-A letter appeared in last night's (28th inst.) China Mail dealing with a case of discourtesy on the part of one of the Board's officials. The gentleman who wrote that letter has written to me and asked me to bring the letter before the Board, and that is my excuse for doing it now. I do not know the circumstances or true facts of the case, but I have no doubt that there were faults on both sides. In fact, there can be no doubt about it that our inspectors have a very trying task to fulfil. They have great difficulties put in their way, and I have no doubt many insults are thrown at them. At the same time, we must insist upon it that "no employé of the Board, and especially a Chinese employe, shall go beyond their legal powers. I should like to move, sir, that a notice he issued to the employes to the effect that, if any of them are suggestions we have to make until we get caught, exceeding, their instructions or unnecessarily annoying people in the execution of their duty, they will be severely

Mr Fung Wa Chuen-I think the Board ought to have some drawn-up rules laid down for the guidance of these students and also for the guidance of the cleansing gangs. I am told the cleansing gangs give no notice whatever. Dr Clark-No, they don't.

Mr Fung Wa Chuen-Well, they ought to give three or four hours' notice. Californian, Australian and Manila firms have to write their letters and then clear out at once. I think you ought to give them three or four hours' notice. Dr Clark said this was a different question altogether. But as to giving notice if that were done the probability was that when the cleansing gong got to a house there would be nothing left to disinfect. Mr Fung Wa Chun-Iwasn't talking about the coolie class. I was not talking about the plague houses, but houses which have been cleansed without a plague cases in the

Dr. Clark-We don't give notice now we finished our house-to-house cleansing long ago, and we only disinfect houses in which or in the immediate vicinity of which a plague case has occurred. The discussion then closed.
